

Planning for a collapsed curriculum day

Full details of all the activities are included in the teacher booklet.

A suggested timeframe for delivery is included but the sessions are adaptable to your timetable.

Activity	Time	Resources	Delivery	Learning objectives
Assembly to launch the day	15 mins (approx)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Assembly grid and resources as outlined (within the plan) 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> The assembly plan provided aims to make children feel inspired about the NHS: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> The wide range of jobs. The work they might do when they grow up. The competition to say thank you to the NHS 	Pupils: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> know about the NHS and its wide range of jobs. know there is no such thing as a man's or woman's job. understand the aims of the competition and feel inspired.
Who am I?	1hr (approx)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> PPT Part 1 Who am I? worksheet Who am I? "Like me" or "Not like me" worksheet 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Ask children to draw a quick picture of someone in the community that helps them. What job do they do? Discussion: What have they drawn? Can anyone do that job? 	Pupils: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> understand people help us in different ways. know there is no such thing as a man's or woman's job.
Interview a guest	1hr (approx)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> What's their story? worksheet OR In the hot seat (example questions in PPT Part 3) 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Invite someone to the school – a parent or staff member's friend or relative who works for the NHS, for example, or someone who is happy to look back over the years and talk about their experiences of the NHS. There are two activities included within the resources that encourage children to use their interviewing and reporting skills. Select one of them. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> What's their story? In the hot seat 	Pupils: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> can speak to, and listen to others to capture stories and share them.
Job cards	1hr (approx)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Job cards x 27 Hire me! worksheet 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Display the job cards. Children move around the room, or from table to table, to explore them. Children select one of the jobs, or a different one, if they prefer. There are over 350 roles in the NHS. You could make some computers available for further research. Hand out the Hire me! worksheet. Children respond to an ad by applying for a job of their choice. If pupils select more traditional roles, you could set them an alternative too. 	Pupils: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> know about a wide range of jobs in the NHS. understand different jobs require different qualities and skills and can reflect on how theirs could be helpful. know there is no such thing as a man's or woman's job.
Competition to say thank you to the NHS	1hr (approx)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Short film about the competition PPT Part 5 Thank you NHS worksheet 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Recap on the competition using the short film and/or PowerPoint slides provided. Children begin to plan what they want to do – a piece of artwork or writing. Hand out the worksheet. It gives them a chance to reflect on what they have learnt to inspire them. Ask pupils to share what they have captured (in the worksheet) to conclude the day. They can continue preparing their entry in a follow-up lesson(s), after-school club or as homework activity. 	Pupils: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> know about a wide range of jobs in the NHS and share what they have learnt with others. know that there is no such thing as a man's job or a woman's job feel proud of their achievement.